Madam!—you are very pressing.

And I can't decline the task,
With the slightest gift of guessin
You would hardly need to sak!

Don't you see a hint of marriage his sober-sided face? In his rather stooping-carriage And extremely rapid pace?

If he's not committed treason, Or some wicked action done, Can you see the faintest reason Why a bachelor should run? Why should he be in a flurry ?

But a loving wife to greet, s circumstance to hurry The most dignified of feet! When afar the man has spied her,

If the grateful, happy elf Does not haste to be beside her, It is but a trifle, may be-

But observe his practiced tone When he calms your stormy baby, Just as if it were his own!

Do you think's certain meekne Is a chronic optic weakness
That has come of reading books?

Did you ever see his vision Peering underneath a bood, Save enough for recognition, As a civil person should! Could a Capuchin be colder

When he glances, as he must, At a finely rounded shoulder, Or a proudly swelling bust ? Madam !- think of every feature,

Then deny it, if you can-He's a fond connubial creature, And a very married man!

A Little Difficulty in the Way.

An enterprising traveling agent for a well known Cleveland tomb stone manufactory lately made a business visit to a small town in an adjoining county. Hearing in the village that a man in a remote part of the village had lost his wife, he thought he would go and see him, and offer him consolation and a grave stone on reasonable terms. He started. The road was a frightful one, but the agent persevered, and fi-nally arrived at the bereaved man's house. Bereaved man's hired girl told the agent that the bereaved man was splitting rails "over in the pasture, about two miles." The indefatigable agent hitched his horse, and started for the pasture. After falling into all man-ner of mud-holes, scratching himself with briars and tumbling over decayed logs, the agent at last found the bereaved man. In a subdued voice he asked the man if he had lost his wife. The man said he had. The agent was very sorry to hear of it, and sympa-thized with him in his affliction; but death, he said, was an insatiate archer, and shot down all, both high and low. Informed the man that what was his loss was her gain, and would be glad to sell him a grave stone to mark the spot where the bereaved one sleptnarble or common, as he chose, at priees defying competition. The bereaved man said "there was a little difficulty we shall sell at manufacturer's prices.

Sensible Advice to the Sick.—The most intelligent and observing physicians will be unanimous in saying that sickly imaginations, or disordered minds, are more difficult to cure than diseased bodies, and that the real obstance of the latter lies in the obstinacy of the former. Some people but slightly diseased in body, make themselves helpless by the operation of the imagination, and physicians find it impossible to cure the slight malady, until something has been done for the mind. Hence the advice often given to invalids to travel, whereby their minds can be diverted from the body and the ills to which the imagination gives rise. We find in the papers the following bit of advice to invalids, coming from Charles Lamb, which will be generally regarded as sensible: "You are too apprehensive of your complaint. The best way in these cases is to keep yourselves as ignorant as the world was before Galen, of the entire construction of the animal man; not to be conscious of the midriff; to hold kidtion of the animal man; not to be conscious of the midriff; to hold kidconscious of the midriff; to hold kidneys to be an agreeable fiction; to account the circulation of the blood an idle whim of Harvey's; to acknowledge which was as follows, to wit:

HOWARD ASSOCIATION. Philadelphia.

A Benevolent Institution established by special Endocument for the Relief of the Sick and Distressed, afflicted with Virulent and Epidemic Discusses.

THE HOWARD ASSOCIATION, in view of the awful destruction of human life, caused by Sexual diseases, and the deceptions practiced upon the unfortunate victims of such diseases by Quacks, several years ago directed their Consulting Surgeon, as a CHARITABLE ACT worthy of their name, to open a Dispensary for the treatment of this class of diseases, in all their forms, and to give MEDICAL ADVICE GRATIS to all who apply by letter, with a description of their condition, (age, letter, with a description of their condition, (age, occupation, habits of life, &c.,) and in cases of extreme poverty, to FURNISH MEDICINES FREE OF CHARGE. It is needless to add that the Association commands the highest Medical skill of the age, and will furnish the most approved modern treatment.

The Directors of the Association, in their Annual Report upon the treatment of Sexual Diseases, for the year ending January 1st, 1858, express the highest satisfaction with the success which has attended the labors of the Consulting Surgeon in the cure of Spermatorrhea, Seminal Weakness, Impotence, Gonorrhea, Gleci, Syphilis, the vice of Onanism or Self-abuse, &c., and order a continuance of the same plan for the ensuing year.

The Directors, on a review of the past, feel assured that their labors in this sphere of benevolent effort have been of great benefit to the afflicted, especially to the young, and they have resolved to devote themselves, with renewed zeal, to this very important and much despised cause.

An admirable Report on Spermatorrhea, or Seminal Weakness, the vice of Onanism, Masturbation, or Self-abuse, and other diseases of the sexual organs, by the Consulting Surgeon, will be sent by mail (in a sealed envelope), FREE OF CHARGE, on the receipt of TWO STAMPS for postage. Other Reports and Treats on the nature and treatment of sexual diseases, diet, &c., are constantly being published for gratuitous distribution, and will be sent to the afflicted. Some of the new remedies and methods of treatment discovered during the last year, are of great value.

Address, for Report or treatment, Dr. GEORGE R. CALHOUN, Consulting Surgeon, Howard Association, No. 2 South Ninth Street, Philadelpnia, Pa.

THE UNITED STATES. A New Patent Elevated Oven COOKING STOVE

On an entirely original principle. On An Entirely Original Principle.

In this valuable invention we do away with all the objections ever made to the elevated Oven Stove. The pipe-flue is placed in front of the oven, in fact, forming a part of the oven itself, and by this means we are enabled to regulate the baking more perfectly than in any other stove which was ever made. We have but one damper to it, which has three wings never liable to get out of order, and is also patented. By turning the damper one way, we force all the heat and flame under and up in the back of the oven, over the top, and thence down in front, until it enters into the flue, and passes off the curvature in the bottom of the oven, which requires the heat to descend, and hugs the oven during the circuit. Reversing the same damper, we totally exclude the entire heat from the oven, it all passing into the flue direct, without even reaching the oven. This simple and beautiful arrangement needs, we are certain, no further recommendation from us. The pipe being thus located, the stove can be set close to the wall or side of the room, with a small zinck or timed board hung on the wall; the pipe being so far from the wall as not to injure it, the stove, so set, will occupy less room than ordinary square or dividing flue stoves.

A number of these Stoves have been sold recently, and have given

A great superiority of this remedy over any other ever discovered for the speedy and certain cure of Intermittents is, that it contains no Quinime or mineral, consequently it produces no quinism or other injurious effects whatever upon the constitution. Those cured by it are left as healthy as if they had never had the discase.

Fever and Ague is not alone the consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Heddacho, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Astlima, Palipitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Celic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "Cure" expels the poison from the blood, and consequently cures them all alike. It is an invaluable protection to immigrants and persons travelling or temporarily residing in the malarious districts. If taken occasionally or daily while expessed to the infection, that will be excreted from the system and cannot accumulate in sufficient quantity to ripen into descae. Hence it is even nerve valuable for protection than cure, and few will ever suffer from Intermittents, if they avail themselves of the protection this renedy affords.

are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or crade them. Their penetrating properties search, and chasse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is lowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanae, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiceness, Heartburn, Headache arizing from disordered Stomach, Nausen, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Juaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jamedice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions. So wile is the field of its usefulness and so mannerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons pallicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidute to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.
